LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated January 5th, 1949.

E. K. DEBECK,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

The address of its registered office is 425 Baker Street, Nelson, B.C.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(1) (a) To carry on the business and operations of a mining, milling, reduction, and development company:

(b) To prospect for, open, explore, develop, work, improve, maintain, and manage gold, silver, copper, nickel, lead, zinc, coal, iron, and other mines, quarries, mineral, and other deposits and properties, and to dig for, dredge, raise, crush, wash, smelt, roast, assay, analyse, reduce, and amalgamate and otherwise treat ores, metals, and mineral substances of all kinds, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to render the same merchantable, and to sell and otherwise dispose of the same or any part thereof, or any interest therein:

(c) To acquire by purchase, lease, concession, licence, exchange, or other legal title, mines, mining lands, easements, mineral properties, or any interest therein, minerals and ores and mining claims, options, powers, privileges, water and other rights, patent rights, processes, and mechanical or other contrivances and either absolutely or conditionally and either solely or jointly with others, and as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and to lease, place under licence, sell, dispose of, and otherwise deal with the same or any part thereof or any interest therein:

(d) To crush, win, get, quarry, smelt, calcine, refine, dress, amalgamate, manipulate, and prepare for market, buy and sell ore, metal, and mineral substances of all kinds, and to carry on any other metallurgical operations which may seem conducive to any of the Company's objects:

(2) (a) To manufacture into marketable commodities or otherwise and dispose of all residual or by-products resulting from any refining or other operations in which the Company may be engaged:

(b) To purchase, construct, build, operate, maintain, and lay down, take on lease, or acquire by grant or otherwise, and to own, hold, control, lease, exchange, sell, charter, hire, or otherwise acquire and dispose of lands, mills, factories, manufactories, laboratories, testing rooms, furnaces, kilns, foundries, workshops, sale and machine shops, cold-storage depots and plants, ice-house, smelters, reduction and concentration works, hydraulic, electrical, chemical, and other works, engines, siding, tracks, bridges, spurs, piers, roads, wharves, steamships and other ships, aeroplanes and other aircraft, terminal and shipping facilities, airdromes and stations of all kinds, coke-ovens, tanks, distilleries, absorption machinery and plants, rolling-stock, boilers, tanks, artesian wells, and such other works, buildings, plant, machinery, apparatus, appliances, chattels, real and personal conveniences and properties as may be directly or indirectly necessary for all or any of the purposes or businesses or objects of the Company:

(c) To acquire by purchase or otherwise, to own, control, and hold water powers, gas, oil, and all other powers and substances necessary and requisite for the development and production of light, heat, and power, and all franchises, appurtenances, and privileges appertaining thereto or necessary for the full exercise and enjoyment thereof, and to store, dam, manufacture, generate, utilize, transmit, and distribute the same for the purposes of the Company, and to supply, contract for, and furnish or otherwise dispose thereof to public and private consumers, and to build, construct, and maintain flumes, viaducts, reservoirs, dams, culverts, subways, aqueducts, water-works, gas and sewer systems, irrigation works, power plants, power stations, hydraulic works, transmission lines, and all other works, buildings, equipment, machinery, appliances, and devices, and all other materials, substances, and means for the development, production, supply, and use of light, heat, and power, and to install, own, equip, maintain, and operate over lands owned or controlled by the Company a telephone and telegraph system, provided always that the powers granted under this clause, in so far as those relate to the supply of light, heat, and power beyond the Company's own lands and premises, shall be subject to all Dominion, Provincial, and municipal laws and regulations in that behalf, and shall be exercised accordingly:

(d) To construct, purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, carry on, and maintain any transportation system and means of transportation, communication, conveyance, or otherwise required by the Company on or in sea, earth, or air for its purpose and to operate the same by such means or motive power as the Company may deem necessary, subject to and over such lands, rights, areas, or otherwise as the Company may be entitled to or possess, and to enter into contracts with any person or company as to interchange of traffic, joint working or otherwise as may seem expedient:

(e) To purchase or otherwise acquire, sell, dispose of, and deal in property of all kinds and any estate and interest therein and in particular lands, business concerns, and undertakings, mortgages, charges, annuities, option, licences, securities, concessions, produce, policies, book-debts, choses in action and claims against any property, person, or company, and to carry on any business concern or undertaking acquired by the Company:

(f) To establish and finance companies for the promotion, prosecution, or execution of undertakings, works, projects, or enterprises similar in whole or in part to those of the Company, whether of a public or private character, and to acquire and dispose of shares, securities, and interests of and in any such companies:

(g) To prosecute and execute directly or by contribution or other assistance any undertakings, works, projects, businesses, or enterprises in which, or for the prosecution whereof, or on the security whereof, or of any profits or emoluments derivable therefrom, the Company shall have invested money, embarked capital, or engaged its credit, and to conduct and carry on or liquidate and wind up any such undertakings, projects, businesses, or enterprises:

(h) To act as employee, agent, or manager of any person, firm, or corporation with which the Company may be associated or in which it may be interested:

(i) To acquire by subscription, purchase, or otherwise and to accept and take, hold, or sell shares or stocks in any company, society, or undertaking, whether the Company shall have invested money therein or shall have been acquired by or become associated with the Company or otherwise:

(j) To make or concur or assist in making all payments and financial arrangements in relation to companies, corporate and other bodies or associations, concerns, and undertakings having business relations with the Company or otherwise, and to underwrite, subscribe for, purchase, hold, sell, or dispose of bonds, debentures, obligations, or securities in any such companies, associations, concerns, and undertakings, and to guarantee, subject to the "Insurance Act," or assist in the guarantee of the payment of any moneys, dividends, or interest on the bonds, debentures, obligations, or security of any such and to pay any commissions, brokerages, indemnities, or other charges and legal or other expenses incidental thereto:

(k) To invest the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as the directors may from time to time determine:

(l) To consolidate or amalgamate with any other company having objects similar in whole or in part to those of this Company:

(m) To pay the expenses of and preliminary and incidental to the formation, establishment, and registration of the Company:

(n) To pay for any lands, business, property, rights, privileges, and concessions acquired or agreed to be acquired by the Company, and generally to satisfy any payment or obligation of the Company by the issue of shares of this or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up, or of debentures or other securities of this or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up:

(o) To distribute any of the assets of the Company amongst the shareholders thereof in specie:

(p) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patent, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive limit or right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any purposes of the Company or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise to account the property, rights, or information so required:

(q) To enter into partnership or into any arrangements for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on, engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take and otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee or otherwise deal with the same:

(r) To enter into any arrangements with any governments or other authorities, supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such government or authority any rights, privileges, or concessions that the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangement, rights, privileges, or concessions:

(s) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts, and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company or its predecessors in business or to dependents or connections of such persons and to grant pensions and allowances and to make payments toward insurance and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects or for any exhibition or for any public, general, or useful object:

(t) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company:

(u) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and particularly by the issue of debenture or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property both present and future, including its uncalled capital and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(v) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(w) To undertake and execute any trusts subject to the "Trust Companies Act," the undertaking whereof seems desirable and either gratuitously or otherwise:

(x) To adopt such means of making known the products and services of the Company as may seem expedient and particularly by advertising by the press, by circulars, by purchase and exhibition of works of art or interest, by publication of books and periodicals, and by granting prizes, rewards, and donations:

(y) To obtain any Provincial order or Act of Parliament or Legislative Assembly for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution or for any other purpose which may seem expedient and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(z) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any foreign country or place or in any province of Canada or elsewhere abroad:

(aa) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world and as principals, agents, contractors, trustees, or otherwise and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others.
